

Curriculum Vitae Jacqueline Rohloff

Nee: McGowan

Education

1982-1987 B.Sc. (Honours in Physiology), University of Alberta.
1987-1988 Special Student in Science, University of Alberta.
1988-1989 Master's in Medicine, University of Alberta
1990-1991 Early Childhood Development, Grant MacEwan Community College.
1991-1992 Special Student in Science, University of Alberta.
1992-1996 Faculty of Medicine MD program, University of Alberta.

Residency

1996-1998 Family Medicine Program, University of Manitoba.

Degrees / Qualifying Exams

1987 B.Sc. (Honours in Physiology), University of Alberta.
1996 MD from University of Alberta.
1997 L.M.C.C.
1998 C.C.F.P.

Professional Associations

College of Physicians and Surgeons of Alberta.
College of Family Physicians of Canada.
Canadian Medical Association
Alberta Medical Association

Medical Research Experience

May - Aug 1996 Department of Pharmacology, University of Alberta.
Supervisor: Dr. Tessa Gordon
Field of Study: Peripheral nerve regeneration.
Job duties: Histological examination of rabbit peripheral nerves to determine the effects of electrical stimulation on nerve degeneration and regeneration.
Attended Symposium on Peripheral Nerve Regeneration.

May - Aug 1987 Department of Pharmacology, University of Alberta.
Supervisor: Dr. Bozena Vollrath
Field of Study: Phosphotidyl inositol pathway
Job Duties: Culture of human umbilical cord epithelial cells, column chromatography, characterization of kinase-3 enzyme in guinea pig epithelium, tissue bath studies of dog aorta including the removal and preparation of aorta and of the solutions used.

June - Aug 1993 Department of family Medicine in conjunction with the Edmonton Board of Health.
Supervisors: Dr. David Moores (Department of Family Medicine).
Dr. Gerry Predy (Edmonton Board of Health).

Curriculum Vitae

Jacqueline Rohloff

Nee: McGowan

Medical Research Experience (con't)

July '96-June '98 Department of Family Medicine, University of Manitoba.
Supervisors: Dr. Jill Kernahan and Dr. Allan Katz.
Project: Development of an Asthma Questionnaire for the purpose of determining the severity of asthma in the community and whether or not treatment coincides with the Canadian Consensus Guidelines and patient knowledge of asthma and treatment over time.

Professional Resident Positions

1997-1998: Co-chief Resident Family Medicine, Seven Oaks Program.
Responsibilities included: Clinic, curriculum and postgraduate meetings, call schedules, bringing forward resident concerns, evaluation of residents with academic difficulties, organizing seminars.

Locum Experience

In July 1988 I began a series of locums in Leduc, Fort Saskatchewan and Edmonton. These included office practice, obstetrics, hospital, nursing home and emergency work. As such I have had admitting privileges at the Misericordia General Hospital, Leduc General Hospital, Grey Nuns Hospital and Fort Saskatchewan Health Center.

Past Positions

Jan 2000 - Feb 2001: Clinical Associate / W.W. Cross Cancer Clinic

June 2001- Feb 2008: Associate / Capilano Medical Clinic

Sept 2001 - Sept 2018: Clinical Associate Orthopedics / University of Alberta.

Current Position

Jan 2019 - present Medical Director / Greenpath Medicinal Health Centre